Eden Court is supported by

Eden Court has been celebrating a very special year with a host of events that show off the scope, scale and reach of this brilliant organisation. We launched our 50th anniversary year back in April with An Evening with RSNO featuring Scottish Opera - fifty years since these same two companies helped open Eden Court's doors in 1976. That night has set the tone for a wonderful year of celebration. In this new season programme, we're delighted to welcome back Scottish Opera with A Night at the Opera, whilst RSNO bring us both a Viennese Gala and Romantic Valentine's: Grieg's Piano Concerto.

Our special 50th events continue with Confluence, a walk-through theatre experience taking audiences on a journey through hidden corners of our building (30 Oct - 8 Nov). This ambitious Eden Court production weaves together stories of love, loss, belonging and connection and takes you through some unexpected places behind the scenes of our iconic, three-century spanning building. Book your time slot and discover a unique way of experiencing live performance.

We had so much fun celebrating five decades of Eden Court Cinema at the 1976 ticket price of 73p that we've decided to keep Cinema Flashback going right through to the end of our anniversary year, with one screening per month. This Autumn's standout cinema moment will of course be the 24th Inverness Film Festival (13 - 19 Nov) and you can expect the usual diverse range of film premieres and special events. This year, we're also thrilled to present a special IFF On Location strand - taking screenings out into site-specific spaces around the Highlands, including Culloden Battlefield Visitor Centre (Kidnapped), Inverness Botanic Gardens (Little Shop of Horrors) and Inverness Library (Ghostbusters).

Back in July, our 50th brought together three of Inverness's own musical theatre companies on one stage, in One Night Only! - a joyful reminder of the skill, talent and high quality of our local amateur companies. I'm delighted that there's more to come from them this year, with Ness Entertainment's Grease, Starlight Musical Theatre's Sister Act and Inverness Musical Theatre's The Addams Family.

Our summer music festival Under Canvas gave us one of our 50th year's trad highlights: a beautiful new Gaelic commission from Sian, celebrating Highland women past and present. We may have packed up the Under Canvas tents, but the very best trad music remains vital to our programme, and highlights this season include Scottish Ensemble & Brighde Chaimbeul, Burns Outside The Box and Calum MacPhail.

Outside of our 50th celebrations, a few Empire stage shows deserve a shout-out. The triumphant return of SIX (6-10 Oct) is back by huge demand, plus Scottish Ballet's Cinders! (27-30 Jan), São Paulo Dance Company (9 + 10 Feb) and Cirque: The Greatest Show (24 + 25 Feb). Coming out of winter, we're thrilled to welcome Layton Live (10 Mar) and the 75th anniversary of The Mousetrap (30 Mar-3 Apr). Later in the year, we have the terrifying yet thrilling prospect of Paranormal Activity (May 2027) and the phenomenal musical Operation Mincemeat (Jun 2027).

And then, of course, there's Christmas! Our huge, show stopping panto is Cinderella (2 Dec - 3 Jan), sure to dazzle the Empire theatre through the festive season. For our youngest audiences we have A Land Beyond Winter (Sat 12 - Thu 24 Dec), a magical show made especially for younger children and their families.

In December, we will close our 50th year with Eden Court Stories, a specially curated project gathering memories and reflections from audiences across five decades. Eden Court's story has always been written by the people who walk through our doors and it feels entirely fitting to end our anniversary year spotlighting our community. Watch this space for full details of the project, curated by Jacqueline Briggs.

As we look ahead to the next fifty years at Eden Court I want to say a huge thank you - for every ticket bought, every performance supported, every memory made here. This building has always belonged to the Highlands and I hope this special year has shown how much that means to us.

A Night at the Opera

SCOTTISH OPERA

Fri 20 Nov

Fifty years ago, the curtain rose at Eden Court for the first time, with Mozart's The Magic Flute among the opening night music. Opera has never been far from its stage since. This special evening celebrates opera in all its colour, drama, and humanity, with a distinctly Scottish heart.

Presented by much-loved broadcaster and tenor Jamie MacDougall and with the full force of The Orchestra of Scottish Opera, the evening brings together some of opera's most beloved moments alongside works by women composers. From the soaring power of Missy Mazzoli's Breaking the Waves to iconic selections from Carmen, Tannhäuser, and of course The Magic Flute, this is opera at its most vivid. As a special treat, Jamie also performs a collection of Sir Harry Lauder's songs, fresh from the Broadway run of Lauder!

Eden Court Stories

Celebrate the past, present and future of Eden Court in a very special anniversary exhibition.

To close our 50th year, we're bringing together five decades of Eden Court in one place - an exhibition built from stories shared by audiences, artists and staff, curated and developed by Inverness-based illustrator and mural artist Jacqueline Briggs.

The result is a collective portrait of a building that has become part of the fabric of Highland culture. It's the perfect way to close a year that has celebrated Eden Court - and the community that made it what it is.

Operation Mincemeat is the Olivier-winning Best New Musical and Broadway's newest hit. With 161 five-star reviews* and a Tony Award to boot, the best-reviewed show in West End history has extended the UK leg of its World Tour!

The year is 1943 and we're losing the war. Luckily, we're about to gamble all our futures on a stolen corpse.

Singin' in the Rain meets Strangers on a Train, Operation Mincemeat is the fast-paced, hilarious and unbelievable true story of the twisted secret mission that won us WWII. The question is: how did a dead body, a fake love letter, and Ian Fleming come together to wrong-foot Hitler?

Correct at the time of printing... not that we're counting!*

Madama Butterfly

SCOTTISH OPERA

Thu 10 + Sat 12 Jun

A new co-production with Irish National Opera.

Puccini's Madama Butterfly has moved audiences to tears for over a century, asking them to accept that Cio-Cio-San's suffering is beautiful; that Pinkerton's betrayal is inevitable; that a woman's destruction is the price of a meaningful story.

Coming to Scotland after a triumphant run in Dublin, this reimagined Madama Butterfly becomes urgent and human – a meditation on what we inherit, what we conceal, and what it costs when the truth is finally brought to light.

Sung in Italian with English supertitles.
