A very warm welcome to our latest brochure, your guide to over 100 brilliant live events taking place at Eden Court through to March 2024 - and beyond. We're excited to share another diverse programme with you, brimming with world-class theatre, music, dance and drama, plus exhibitions and live cinema events. There's plenty here to keep you surprised, challenged, thrilled and – above all – entertained throughout the long winter months.

Two incredible dance companies top and tail the season. This October, the USA's Ailey 2 brings twelve sensational dancers to our theatre, performing a programme that includes Alvin Ailey's masterpiece Revelations. In March, Brazil's finest, the São Paulo Dance Company, make their UK debut. We couldn't be more delighted to be hosting these talented companies here in the Highlands.

Lighting up dark November skies with big screen spectacle, the 21st Inverness Film Festival brings six days of the best new international cinema to the heart of the Highlands. Watch out for our full programme announcement this October, guaranteed to feature Scottish premieres for some of the most eagerly anticipated films of the year.

Scotland's National Companies continue to delight and inspire. Musical highlights include the phenomenal sitar of Jaseep Singh Degun with the Scottish Ensemble, the BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra's Rachmaninov's Piano Concerto No. 2 and a festive favourite with RSNO's Viennese Gala. There's riotous theatrics in Scottish Opera's The Barber of Seville whilst Scottish Ballet has eye-catching new designs and a fresh take on Cinders! For an entirely different take on a classic fairy-tale, look no further than this year's panto - a rendering of Sleeping Beauty filled with all the magic and mayhem you could hope for.

I'm delighted that this programme culminates with a suitably stunning musical phenomena, as a new production of Andrew Lloyd-Webber and Tim Rice's Jesus Christ Superstar comes to Inverness for a week in March.

Don't forget that our Studio Programme offers courses all year round, with the next term starting up this January. However, don't feel you have to wait until then to try a class – we welcome no-strings-attached drop-ins for participants to try things out and see what might suit them. Our experienced and friendly Engagement team do an incredible job in providing access to the performing arts, with class facilitators who foreground health and wellbeing, whilst also offering qualifications and performance opportunities for those who want to take it further.

Thank you to everyone who supports Eden Court – whether you are a Friend who regularly attends events, a cinema-goer, a class participant, or someone who uses our spaces to meet, read or work. You are the community who make this building come alive in the shared joy of art and culture.

Scottish Ensemble Present: Jasdeep Singh Degun

SCOTTISH ENSEMBLE

Fri 06

Bringing together traditions of Indian and Western Classical music.

Leeds born sitarist Jasdeep Singh Degun is one of Britain's leading voices in the Indian Classical tradition. His music complements the ancient traditions of raags with contemporary compositional techniques to create sparkingly cinematic music for sitar and strings.

In this collaborative concert, Scottish Ensemble and Jasdeep will spin a musical tale, featuring music from Jasdeep's Anomaly album, Western classical string repertoire, and a new work by Jasdeep.

"Showcases the classical music of the subcontinent but also mixes, melds and modernises it."

Finding Petunia LittleTree

Wed 04

Who is Petunia LittleTree? And what about her relationship with baby tree, Sally Semper Sprout, is so unnerving?

Finding Petunia LittleTree offers a humorous, yet bittersweet, exploration into the complex emotions we face as we learn how to navigate our climate emergency. Telling part of our collective story, she asks "How can we live with what we know, with humour, dark undertones and all?"

A solo physical theatre and dance work by Sharon Took-Zozaya with sound design by Quee MacArthur of Shooglenifty.

There will be a post-show talk following the performance.

Woman Walking

Wed 11

Woman Walking is a beautifully poignant play imagining several interactions over a period of time between Cath, a modern woman carrying the guilt and trauma over the death of her mother, and Nan Shepherd, a long since deceased Scottish writer and novelist. Nan is brought back by Cath to help her find resolution through her dialogue with Nan and through the Cairngorms themselves in all their rough beauty, light and weather. Sylvia Dow's play has both humour and pathos and brings themes of grief, resolution and the healing power of nature.

The Maggie Wall

Thu 26

Just before she is burnt as a witch, Maggie tells us her story...

An enthralling new play from Martin McCormick, inspired by a monument near Dunning called The Maggie Wall, the site of a mysterious grave to a woman tried and executed in the 17th century for witchcraft.

The Maggie Wall explores the vulnerability of women and injustices suffered by them in a patriarchal and closed community and resonates with contemporary experiences, as well as reminding us of a chapter of Scottish and British history in which many people, predominately women, were accused, tried and killed as suspected witches.

The Barber of Seville

SCOTTISH OPERA

Thu 16 + Sat 18

Back by popular demand, Sir Thomas Allen (The Marriage of Figaro, The Magic Flute, Don Giovanni) creates a riotous production of Rossini’s beloved comedy. The action centres around Figaro, one of opera’s most delightful characters and perhaps the only voice of reason in a world of young love and old foolishness. When Count Almaviva sets his sights on the beautiful Rosina, he enlists Figaro – barber, fixer, and all-round man of action – to help woo her. It is no easy feat: Rosina’s guardian Doctor Bartolo keeps her under lock and key with the intention of marrying her himself!

The multiplying disguises, pranks, and daring escapes engineered by Figaro are enhanced by Simon Higlett’s enchanting designs, bright with Spanish colours. This revival is sung in English for a fresh spin on Rossini’s larger-than-life characters and antics.

With Rossini’s signature toe-tapping ensembles, high-speed patter and lively arias, this masterpiece is a joyful theatrical experience packing in one comic scene after another.

Sung in English with English supertitles.

Cheeky and irreverent, Scotland's much-loved kilty pleasure unleashes his fantastic new show (and another corker of a show title) for a fun evening of uproarious stand-up!

Renowned world-wide for his high-octane live comedy, Craig's razor-sharp wit and unsurpassed audience rapport have seen him perform all over Europe, Australia (including the Sydney Opera House) all over Scotland as well as south of the border and even a season of shows off-Broadway in New York.

Buffy Revamped

Tue 14

Seventy minutes. Seven seasons. One Spike.

Fresh from an award-winning run at Edinburgh Fringe, this fast-paced new production brings you the entire 144 episodes of the hit 90s TV show, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, as told through the eyes of the one person who knows it inside out... Spike.

Funny, satirical and bursting with 90s pop-culture references, it's the perfect parody for Buffy aficionados and those who never enrolled at Sunnydale High alike.

Do you believe in ghosts? Are UFOs real? Is the impossible possible?

Join Danny Robins, creator of the smash hit BBC Radio 4 paranormal podcasts Uncanny, The Battersea Poltergeist and The Witch Farm, and award-winning West End play 2:22: A Ghost Story, for the biggest investigation into the paranormal ever.

You'll be immersed in the sights, sounds and scares of brand new, real-life stories of the supernatural, from ghosts and poltergeists to UFO sightings and other strange encounters. Watch as these creepy, thrilling tales are brought to life on stage by Danny and his ever-present team of experts.

Jim Smith: The Hills Have Ayes

Fri 24

After his last sell-out tour, Perthshire farmer and comedian Jim Smith dons the checked shirt again as he returns with hilarious tales of Scottish rural life.

With his trademark mix of regional accents and impressions, Jim shares anecdotes from his changing world which has seen him get engaged, become a first time father and continue farming through Covid and Brexit.

Whether you live out in the sticks or embrace city life, there's something for everyone as this 'Teuchter' tours the country once again.

Jesus Christ Superstar

Tue 05 – Sat 09

An album that inspired a revolution. A revelation that changed the world. A reinvention for this millennium.

Timothy Sheader (Crazy for You, Into the Woods) directs this mesmerising new production of the iconic global phenomenon Jesus Christ Superstar which comes to Inverness for one week only!

Starring Ian McIntosh (We Will Rock You, Follies, Beautiful: The Carole King Musical) as Jesus, Shem Omari James (Dreamgirls UK Tour) as Judas and Hannah Richardson (Sting's The Last Ship) as Mary. Originally staged by London's Regent's Park Open Air Theatre, this reimagined production won the 2017 Olivier Award for Best Musical Revival.

Choreographed by Drew McOnie (King Kong, Strictly Ballroom), and with music and lyrics by multi-award winners Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, Jesus Christ Superstar is set during the final weeks in the life of Jesus Christ. "The best dance company in Brazil"

DANCING TIMES

São Paulo Dance Company

DANCE CONSORTIUM

Tue 19 + Wed 20

Brazil's finest dance company make their highly anticipated UK debut in spring 2024.

Fusing the elegance of classical ballet with the sensuality of Latin American dance, this 'sleek, sexy and highly technical' (The New Yorker) company of talented dancers are set to impress with three UK premieres.

Goyo Montero (resident choreographer with Carlos Acosta's company Acosta Danza) explores the idea of collective identities in Anthem, an epic and emotionally charged ensemble piece for 14 dancers, beautifully visualised with dramatic lighting.

Gnawa, by Nacho Duato (Artistic Director of the Berlin State Ballet), draws on the Mediterranean colours and flavours of Valencia, powered by the hypnotic, ritualistic music of North Africa.

For the finale, Brazilian choreographer Cassi Abranches' colourful and flirtatious Agora sculpts the movement of each dancer's body with the percussive beats and bass grooves of Afro-Brazilian fusion.

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

Tue 10 – Sun 15 Sep 2024

In a brand-new production of this much-loved family favourite, this ravishing award-winning musical is bursting with unforgettable songs by the Sherman Brothers including Toot Sweets, Hushabye Mountain, Truly Scrumptious and of course the Academy Award-nominated title song, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang.

Based on Ian Fleming's timeless story for children and later made into the famous 1968 film, in Chitty Chitty Bang Bang we meet absent-minded inventor Caractacus Potts who restores a broken-down old racing car with the help of his children Jemima and Jeremy. Soon the family discover the car has magical powers, and along with the delectable Truly Scrumptious, the family end up on a hilarious fantastical adventure to far off lands. Their heart-warming journey makes Chitty Chitty Bang Bang a fun-filled hit for all the family.

SCOTTISH BALLET

Fri 26 + Sat 27 Apr 2024

Lose yourself in the raw intensity of this sleek and unmissable ballet, finally returning to Scotland after its sell-out 2016 debut.

Arching backs, spiralling arms and mesmerising patterns push the company dancers to their physical limits in this tale of purity versus seduction. David Dawson's daring, visceral choreography is perfectly paired with the rich, romantic Tchaikovsky score, played live by the Scottish Ballet Orchestra.

La traviata

SCOTTISH OPERA

Thu 23 + Sat 25 May 2024

This beloved production, which began life at Scottish Opera in 2008, has been seen at opera houses around the world.

With his characteristic eye for detail, Sir David McVicar (Il tritico, Falstaff, Pelléas et Mélisande) gets to the love and loss at the core of this doomed love affair in his passionate, gripping, and startlingly intimate Belle Époque production.

Verdi's magnificent score sweeps the characters through every shifting mood – from the wildly dramatic to the most vulnerable moments.

DUNDEE REP THEATRE IN CO-PRODUCTION
WITH ROYAL LYCEUM THEATRE EDINBURGH

Thu 16 – Sat 18 May 2024

Scotland's most loved literary heroine Chris Guthrie is brought to the stage in this thrilling contemporary adaptation.

From harrowing family roots and crushing poverty, to stirring love and the awakening of self, Chris's coming-of-age journey to womanhood is one of enduring strength, persistent survival and joyful renewal. Exploring human resilience through a scorching female protagonist, Sunset Song has a profoundly lyrical intensity that still resonates today.

This radically reimagined production brings together an award-winning Scottish creative team including writer Morna Young (The Stamping Ground), director Finn den Hertog (The Enemy, Square Go) and composer Finn Anderson (Islander, A Mother's Song) to tell this sweeping story of heart-breaking love, and a land and people in turmoil. With rich Scots language text, dynamic and physically charged staging, and raw and vivid live music, Sunset Song is a celebration of Lewis Grassie Gibbon's symphonic, astounding and ever-relevant novel.
