“Spring is nature’s way of saying ‘Let’s Party!’”

ROBIN WILLIAMS

I hope Eden Court provides lots of opportunities over the spring and summer for you to experience some form of party and so this quote from the late-great Robin Williams feels fitting. With so much uncertainty in the world, my hope is that the work on our stages and screens, and in our galleries, classes and projects gives you an excuse to come together and more often than not raises a smile. As we planned our spring and summer season, this ambition was at the forefront of our minds.

Our last brochure introduced a bold new look for Eden Court. Thank you for all your feedback, lots of which has been fed through to this second edition of our new look. I’m also delighted, and relieved, that we now have a beautiful new website in the same style that radically improves your online experience. It is now much simpler to book online and to find out more about life at Eden Court. If you haven’t had a look yet, please do.

As the days grow longer it’s been exciting to look ahead towards the spring and summer at Eden Court.

In April we’re delighted that the wonderful family musical Madagascar lands at Eden Court as part of its record-breaking UK tour. A star-studded cast will offer up a thrilling night at The Lady Vanishes and I’m utterly thrilled the West End and Broadway smash-hit Let It Be finally arrives in Inverness. This wonderful show is a non-stop parade of Beatles’ hits and has wowed critics and audiences around the world. Don’t miss it.

In May, Morna Young’s Lost at Sea promises to be a visceral treat dedicated to the fishing communities of Scotland. Please book early for Scottish Opera’s The Magic Flute and National Theatre of Scotland’s The Cheviot, the Stag and the Black Black Oil. These productions will likely sell out and rightly so.

Throughout the summer we have curated a programme that we hope will have wide appeal. For family audiences you can pick from Dinosaur World Live, Zog or Tom Gates Live. Some highlights for grown-up audiences include: Stephen Tomkinson in the Olivier award-winning Educating Rita and the celeb-packed foot-stomping 80s musical Club Tropicana. I caught the show in London recently and it’s going to be the perfect summer night out. We’re also very pleased to have secured a visit from Magdalena Schamberger’s Curious Shoes, a really unique performance event for people living with dementia, and their loved ones.

Two very special outdoor experiences return this summer. In Inverness, at Eden Court, in partnership with Fèis Rois, our outdoor bar and music tent, Under Canvas will be back between June and August. Check the website closer to the time for exact dates. We’re also excited to be presenting the wonderful Nicole and Martin, inside their beautiful big tents on the lawn at the MacDonald Resort in Aviemore. This wonderful company from Switzerland present fantastic shows for all the family.

In September do join us for Amélie described by the Los Angeles Times as “an enchanting act of theatrical reinvention” and for Red Dust Road from National Theatre of Scotland.

All this weaved with many nights of wonderful music, comedy, theatre, dance and local talent and of course, our very special visit from Sir Ian McKellen in July. This show is sold out, with a long waiting list but you can find out more about it on our website.

We look forward to welcoming you to our shows: inside our buildings, outside our buildings and across the Highlands.

Thank you for your continued support.

Lost at Sea

PERTH THEATRE AT HORSECROSS ARTS AND Morna Young

Thu 16 – Sat 18

By Morna Young | Directed by Ian Brown

A storm is brewing in a small fishing village. A young woman returns home, searching for answers about her father’s death. But as she begins to weave together the strands of her past, a mysterious force unravels family secrets. Featuring the voices of fishermen and their families in their own words – with music, songs and Scots language – it is the lyrical and powerfully evocative story of a North-East fishing family.

Inspired by the loss of playwright Morna Young’s fisherman father, Lost at Sea is a personal tribute to the fishing communities of Scotland.

MIDDLE GROUND THEATRE COMPANY

Tue 7 – Sat 11

Frank Galvin is a washed up veteran lawyer and an alcoholic. He is presented with one last chance to redeem himself when he is given an open-and-shut medical malpractice case that no one thinks he can win. Smelling a cover up, he courageously refuses an out of court settlement and instead takes the case and the entire legal system to court.

A stunning courtroom thriller made famous by the five times OSCAR nominated Sidney Lumet film with Paul Newman and James Mason.

Ian Kelsey is known by millions for his regular roles in Blue Murder, Emmerdale, Casualty, Down To Earth, Where The Heart Is, Doctors and Coronation Street. He is joined by veteran star Denis Lill (Only Fools & Horses/The Royal), Paul Opacic (Bad Girls/Emmerdale/ Hollyoaks), Christopher Ettridge (Goodnight Sweetheart), Richard Walsh (London’s Burning) and Karen Drury (Brookside) in a full cast of fifteen.

NATIONAL THEATRE OF SCOTLAND IN ASSOCIATION WITH DUNDEE REP THEATRE AND LIVE THEATRE, NEWCASTLE

Sun 19 + Mon 20

Based on the original production by Dundee Rep Theatre
Written by John McGrath
Directed by Joe Douglas

A ceilidh through Scotland’s past - and present.
This legendary piece of Scottish theatre tells the story of the exploitation of Scottish lands, waters and people over the centuries.

From the highland clearances to the oil boom, this is the universal tale of how the greed of a few blights the lives of many. Add a generous dose of Scottish rebellion and irreverence. Throw in some live music and a riotous ceilidh - you’ve got yourself a rollicking great night out.

Come and experience the ‘Story that has a beginning, a middle but, as yet, no end…’

Sir Thomas Allen returns to Scottish Opera to revive his five-star production of Mozart’s most inventive opera. Set in a spectacular world inspired by the Victorian futurism of HG Wells and Jules Verne, this enthralling Magic Flute perfectly balances the opera’s beguiling mix of comedy, fantasy and pantomime with a profound story of the search for wisdom, love and truth.

The international cast includes Peter Gijbbers (La traviata 2017); Gemma Summerfield, First Prize winner at the 2015 Kathleen Ferrier Awards; name-to-watch Julia Sitkovetsky; and Richard Burkhard, who returns as Papageno, the laugh-out-loud role he created in 2012. Thu 23

What happens when your world is turned upside down and you have to find your own way? Three triplets abandoned in a forest by their father decide to go their separate ways - one full of strength, one full of adventure, the other choosing to stay right where she is. Over many years having grown forests, saved villages, fought Vikings, crossed oceans and built a home... the sisters, now women, meet back in the forest where it all started. A modern-day fairy-tale full of hope, love and having faith in yourself and never ever give up.

Lizabett Russo + Graeme Stephen

Fri 24

Scotland-based Romanian singer-songwriter Lizabett Russo’s influences are wide ranging. Echoes of her native Romania are beautifully interwoven with avant-garde folk, contemporary jazz and world music. Lizabett is accompanied by award-winning jazz guitarist Graeme Stephen. His peerless improvisational skills and talent for composition make him one of Scotland’s most exciting and prodigious musical talents.
An Evening of Eric + Ern

549: Scots of the Spanish Civil War
Sat 1

In a small pub in Prestonpans, East Lothian, four millennials are told a story. The true story of four local miners who, 80 years ago, travelled from the streets of Prestonpans to the valleys of Spain. They gave up everything that was familiar for a land that was not, for a people they had never met and for a cause they believed was right.

549, a play with songs and storytelling, is a timely insight into one of Scotland’s most important conflicts.

“An enchanting act of theatrical reinvention”
THE LOS ANGELES TIMES

Red Dust Road
NATIONAL THEATRE OF SCOTLAND + HOME, MANCHESTER CO-PRODUCTION
Wed 4 – Sat 7

“You are made up from a mixture of myth and gene. You are part fable, part porridge”
Growing up in 70s’ Scotland as the adopted mixed raced child of a Communist couple, young Jackie blossomed into an outspoken, talented poet. Then she decided to find her birth parents…

From Nairn to Lagos, Red Dust Road takes you on a journey full of heart, humour and deep emotions. Discover how we are shaped by the folk songs we hear as much as by the cells in our bodies.

Based on the soul-searching memoir by Scots Makar Jackie Kay, adapted by Tanika Gupta, and directed by Dawn Walton. Developed with the support of Macrobert Arts Centre.

Wed 11

The Chosen is about dying and so, of course, it is also about living, and time - how we choose to live in the face of dying and how we think about dying. Western culture finds the idea of death difficult, in spite of its inevitability. From the shifting perspectives of both the Chosen and those close to the Chosen, this piece is a deeply personal reflection on how we experience the time left to us. The Chosen is a reference to The Rite of Spring - “chosen” to be sacrificed, but also special, or honoured.

Cold Lasagne Hate Myself 1999

One time I bought a lasagne, heated it up in the oven and ate a bit of it and it wasn’t very nice so I put it in the fridge because it felt wrong to dump a whole lasagne in the bin and then later on I ate a spoonful of the cold lasagne because I was drunk and it was absolutely delicious. It was 4am. I then changed the name of a WhatsApp I was a part of to COLD LASAGNE HATE MYSELF 1999 because I had been thinking a lot about how 1999 was the best year of my life and also about how much I hate myself sometimes. The next day I was asked to name my new show. Come along.

Engagement + Classes

Our Engagement Team run creative arts projects and programmes of activity across the Highlands for people of all ages and abilities. You might have seen us getting everyone moving and grooving at Belladrum Festival. We also have weekly wellbeing sessions and a brilliant youth theatre. Everything we do is imagined and delivered by our brilliant team of theatre, dance, film and accessible arts specialists alongside some very talented local freelance artists.
Flow Festival
The 2nd Flow International Photography Festival will take place in September 2019. This year’s theme of ‘Borders’ explores both geographical and political boundaries as well as looking beyond the physical to the imaginary and the implied. The exhibitions will showcase work by artists from Alaska, Russia, Denmark, France, Norway and Scotland. The festival will also comprise talks, portfolio reviews, workshops and will show a number of photography-related films at Eden Court.

The Gallery at Eden Court
Our galleries work with artists to present a varied programme of exhibitions - showcasing the work of both established artists and investing in those of the future.

Call to Artists
We invite artists in all visual media mediums to submit artwork to be considered for our gallery spaces. This open call is designed to give an opportunity to artists based in Scotland to exhibit their work.

Email gallery@eden-court.co.uk and include artist bio plus three or more images of current work (All new work must have been completed within the last two years).

OneTouch Gallery is a space curated by Flow Photofest showcasing work from local artists as well as photographers across Scotland and further afield.

Stalls Foyer & Second Floor Gallery are spaces where established artists can exhibit and sell their work.

Blink Gallery is our gallery space dedicated to the local community and the creative work that they produce.

STALLS GALLERY

Martin Irish
Martin Irish is an abstract painter living in the Highlands. His work is vivid, bold and full of expression, while at other times he shows a more subtle approach with softer muted tones to his paintings. He paints organically in a non-linear fashion. “My work flows and evolves, taking it’s own direction. There is spontaneity to my working method but also a sense of knowing when to stop. I have to trust my judgement and use restraint to know when a piece of work is complete”.

Elliot’s Stories – Aga Spalding
The works are from a series that reflect a connection between the land and her son’s childhood. Every painting is a story, a glimpse of memory, a print of growing up in the Highlands. Paintbrushes and paints are tools to describe emotions, colours and forms instead of words. They also represent emotions related to being a mother, adapting to changes and getting through the journey of motherhood.

Paul Campbell – Human Wanderlust
Human Wanderlust is an ongoing photographic study of people in their environment when travelling. In his work, Paul captures a combination of description and emotion to both inform and engage the viewer of human experience and to suggest a story. Inspired by classic photographers such as Henri Cartier-Bresson and André Kertesz his work is based on reacting to the what’s in front of him rather than composing or contriving a scene.
Eden Court is proud to support a number of local amateur performing companies, commercial dance schools and other special events. If you would like to hold an event or a conference at Eden Court contact: events@eden-court.co.uk.
